LiveAuction

LiveAuction is part of our dynamic trading platform, where buyers achieve live price leverage in a competitive market. While TradeBoard is a continuous sourcing and market monitoring tool, LiveAuction is used for one off buys where time pressure in a competitive market creates real savings.

LiveAuction can be used for anything, products, services and works, our pre-qualification app means suppliers are bid ready, allowing you to develop one off or group buy opportunities in minutes.

LiveAuction integrates with eTender so you can run pre-qualifications or formal tender specs and link them to an auction.

The system handles items that you may not always consider for auction, such as service rates, spot buys and work job-lots. The designer tool allows full customisation and supports unlimited fields for complex buys (data and $ bid combination) real time feedback, position rankings for bidder, and bid traces for post bid analysis.

KEY BENEFITS

Buyers

LiveAuction supports multiple requirements and reduces buying cycles from weeks to minutes. Imagine the gains: pre-qualified suppliers, your pre-release specification is in LiveAuction, invite selected bidders and run the lots bidding. Productivity goes through the roof and savings are achieved on every buy.

Suppliers

Suppliers want to reduce marketing spend, LiveAuction creates an instant supplier sales opportunity, particularly when prequalification weeds out many competitors. Each supplier can see where their bid ranks, and can provide Buyer input via the chat forum. Batch bidding is not available, and there's no last second minimal underbid as new last bid auto extension and minimum bid increment controls create a level playing field.
